JAMES T. SOUTTER, trustee, survivor of GREENE C. BRONSON, deceased, vs.
THE LA CROSSE & MILWAUKEE RAILROAD COMPANY, the Milwaukee & Minnesota Railroad Company, Selah Chamberlain, Sebre Howard, Conrad Wellaver, Edward H. Brodhead, Newcomb Cleveland, William Gemmell, Joshua Hathaway, James Wolstenholme, Edwin C. Litchfield, Ebenezer Higgins, George R. Mowry, Henry K. Eastman, Henry L. Simonds, De Witt C. Freeman, E. Bradford Greenleaf, Frederick Lind, Sebastian Knetzger, Lawrence G. Graham, Donald D. Scott, Thomas Turton, John Lescomb, Ephraim Mariner, Aren Hill, A. V. Rudd, Franklin J. Blair, Edmund R. Persons, Philip S. Justice, Elkanah Cobb, John V. Bean, Philip Wilson, J. Howard Mitchell, Edwin Townsend, the Mercantile Bank of Hartford, C't, August Lauthof, Charles Quentin, John H. Terch, Byron Kilbourn, Nathaniel S. Bouton, the Junean Bank, the Milwaukee, Watertown & Baraboo Valley Railroad Co., Cicero Comstock, George W. Chapman, Moses M. Davis, and Charles Howard, and Henry Vallette.

2 Be it remembered, that on this second day of January, A. D. 1864, came Lawrence G. Graham and Donald D. Scott, by their solicitor, M. H. Carpenter, esq., and prayed for an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States from the decree in this cause. And came the said Lawrence G. Graham and filed his bond, with J. A. Noonan and Charles H. Wheeler as sureties, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, conditioned to pay the costs of said appeal. Which bond is approved by the judge, and appeal allowed, and citation issued.

And said petition of Graham & Scott, filed January 2d, 1864, is as follows:

District court of the United States for the district of Wisconsin.

JAMES T. SOUTTER, survivor of GREENE C. BRONSON, trustee, vs.
THE LA CROSSE & MILWAUKEE RAILROAD COMPANY and others, def'ts.
} In equity.

To the hon'e Andrew G. Miller, judge of the district court of the United States for the district of Wisconsin:

Your petitioners, Lawrence G. Graham and Donald D. Scott, humbly petitioning, respectfully represent, that in the above-entitled cause in the district court of the United States for the district of Wisconsin James T. Soutter and Greene C. Bronson exhibited
3 their bill, on the equity side of said court, on the 9th day of January, A. D. 1859, against the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad Company, your petitioners, and others, to foreclose a certain mortgage given by said last-named company to said complainants, conveying to said complainants said company's railroad from Milwaukee to Portage, together with the rolling stock and franchises of said company thereto belonging, of the value of over two millions of dollars, to secure bonds of said company to the amount of one million dollars, therein particularly described; that subpœna was duly issued thereon, according to the course and practice of said court, and duly served on your petitioners; and afterwards, to wit, on the 27th day of March, 1860, your petitioners filed their answer to said bill of complaint, claiming an interest in said mortgaged premises as incumbrances by judgment amounting to over twenty thousand dollars, and defending against the whole pretended claim and equity of said complainants as set forth in said bill of complaint; and that the said complainants afterwards, to wit, on the 7th day of May, A. D. 1860, filed general replications to your petitioners' answer; that proof were afterwards taken in said cause by the parties thereto, and by your petitioners, and such proceedings were afterwards had in said cause that, on the 13th day of January, A. D. 1862, the said district court made and rendered a final decree in said cause, ordering the mortgaged property to be sold, and foreclosing your petitioners in said cause of and from any right or equity of redemption in and to said mortgaged premises. That a certain contract was made and entered into by and between the said complainants and the Milwaukee & Minnesota Railroad Company on the 26th day of 4 September, A. D. 1862; after which, for the purpose of obtaining the stipulation of your petitioners to the rendition of a decree according to said contract, the Milwaukee & Minnesota Railroad Company promised your petitioners to pay them their said judgment after the said company should enter into possession of said railroad mentioned in said contract; and, relying upon the performance of said contract, your petitioners have omitted to take their appeal from said decree by which they are aggrieved.

Your petitioners are now advised by counsel, and believe, that said contract has become impossible to be performed without the fault of either party thereto; and that all the parties to said contract, and the stipulation entered into as a part of said contract, are restored to the same position and rights which they had before said contract and stipulation were made; and your petitioners feel themselves aggrieved by said final decree, and desire to appeal therefrom.

Your petitioners, therefore, humbly pray your honor to allow them an appeal from said final decree in said cause to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Your petitioners further represent, that the said complainants, on the 17th day of January, A. D. 1862, took an appeal from said final decree to the Supreme Court, and that said appeal is cause No. 132 of the calendars of the Supreme Court, December term, 1863; and your petitioners show that they fear that, unless the citation upon their said appeal shall be made returnable to some day in the present term of said Supreme Court, the said cause No. 132 may 5 be reached and heard by said Supreme Court at the present term, and your petitioners thus be deprived of the benefit of their said appeal.

LAWRENCE G. GRAHAM.

DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN, ss.

Lawrence G. Graham, being first duly sworn, says, he is one of the petitioners above named; that he has heard the foregoing petition read, and knows the contents thereof, and that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters stated therein on information and belief, and that as those matters he believes it to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 29th day of December, A. D. 1863.

Scott, and others defendants, a decree was rendered, on the 13th day of January, 1862, by said district court against the said Graham and Scott; and the said Graham and said Scott, having prayed and obtained an appeal from said decree to the Supreme Court of the United States, and filed a copy thereof in the office of the clerk of the district court of the United States for the District of Wisconsin, to reverse the said decree in the aforesaid suit, and a citation directed to the said James T. Soutter, survivor of said Greene C. Bronson, citing and admonishing him to be and appear at a Supreme Court of the United States, to be holden at Washington, the Monday of , 1864:

Now, the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said Graham and Scott shall prosecute said appeal to effect, and answer all damages and costs if said Graham and Scott fail to make said appeal good, then the above obligation to be void; else to remain in full force and virtue.

We and each of us authorize any person interested, or the clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, the clerk of said district court, or the clerk of the circuit court of the United States, at any time hereafter, to fill the above blanks, as to the return of said citation above-mentioned.

District of Wisconsin, ss:

I, John M. Miller, clerk of the district court of the United States of America for the district of Wisconsin, do hereby certify that I have compared the writings annexed to this certificate with their originals, and they are true copies thereof, and of the whole thereof; being a complete exemplification of the record on the appeal of Lawrence G. Graham and Donald D. Scott in the suit of James T. Soutter, trustee, survivor of Greene C. Bronson, deceased, against the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company and others, including the reports of the receiver filed in said cause, excepting the record on the appeal of the complainants forwarded to Supreme Court U. S., April 10th, 1862, and also the record on the appeal of the Milwaukee and Minnesota R. R. Company forwarded to Supreme Court U. S., October 31, 1863.

And I further certify, that the receiver's reports herein set forth were not included in records previously forwarded (above mentioned) to the Supreme Court U. S., by the direction of the counsel in the case.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at the city of Milwaukee, in said district [SEAL.] of Wisconsin, this sixth day of January, A. D. 1864, and of our independence the eighty-eighth.

[5 ct. stamp.] J. M. MILLER, Clerk.

66 The United States of America to James T. Soutter, survivor of Greene C. Bronson, trustee, greeting:

You are hereby cited and admonished to be and appear at a Supreme Court of the United States to be holden at Washington on the first Monday of February next, pursuant to an appeal filed in the clerk's office of the district court for the district of Wisconsin, wherein Lawrence G. Graham and Donald D. Scott are appellants, and you are appellee, to show cause, if any there be, why the decree rendered against said appellants, on the 13th day of January, A. D. 1862, as in the said appeal mentioned, should not be corrected, and why speedy justice should not be done to the parties in that behalf.

Witness the Hon. Roger B. Taney, chief justice of the United States, this second day of January, A. D. 1864.

A. G. MILLER, District Judge.
